

OSAP – 1st Executive Meeting

Sunday 27th July

1:02 – Meeting Start

1:34 – Meeting End

Meeting Objectives

- Group Organization
- Exec role responsibilities
- Event Planning

1:02 –General Admin

- We missed the deadline for grants and have no exec bank account for this semester so far, so all club material will aim to be sourced online and for free
- Making another announcement post adding dates (Blue will organize dates for things)
- We will start with the movie night ('Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind') as its most accessible for the most amount of people, an easy place to start
- Not a separate discussion for the movie, will discuss it on the night (accessibility)
- Books: We'll organize an intro night, discussing the author, the themes of the work to get people interested
- 3 book meetings, one for an intro, one for a mid-point drop-in and one conclusion
- Having excerpts of the book so people who haven't read the book can still engage with conversations
- Want wrap up meetings before exams + lecture ends
- 3 book meetings and one movie night, two books will have combined intro nights and separate book meetings

Guest lecturers + Getting new members

- Michael LeBuffe
- Guest lecturers could send emails out to the philosophy department (mailing list to advertise the club)
- Get Martina to design a club advertisement to go on mailing list, QR code to the Instagram (this can be advertised by different lecturers)
- Payton will get up in front of a critical thinking lecture and advertise, [art students] will advertise to art papers (medieval literature class)
- Tom McLaine (Victorian Lit, Humanities Div. Board) Grace Moore (also Victorian Lit.)
- Jasmine will advertise to classics class

- Want 100 Lvl philosophy papers as higher philosophy papers have less people, want philosophy mailing list
- Martina will make flyers to advertise the club around campus
- Contact the Classics Society to try and build inter-club connections
- Getting names of undergraduate coordinators to spread the word for the club
- Reaching out to Dunedin Film Society

Events

- Movie night: As early as Next week, figuring out dates. Renting the Cottage room for OUSA
- Pub Quiz/ OUSA Quiz
- Paint n Sip
- Board Game nights
- OPTION: We can play movies at the theatres (costs money, will need a larger crowd for it)
